I affirm that I am committed to working on behalf of the Amador Mind ~ Body ~ Spirit Fair on October 23rd and 24th, 2010. In exchange for a 3-hour commitment, I will receive free admission to the fair and a card for one free session with any Reader/Healer (I understand that no sessions can be scheduled before 10:00 a.m. the day of the session) or $10 cash-back on any single item purchase from a fair vendor.

While the following list of required qualities is largely tongue-in-cheek, it does paint a picture of our ideal volunteer. To have the best day and fully enjoy your fair experience, be . . . honest, helpful, level-headed, reliable, flexible, resilient, enthusiastic, ethical, patient, assertive, cheerful, positive, approachable, and most importantly - good company!
